

CHANGE REQUEST COVER SHEET

Change Request Number: 10-84

Date Received: 7/27/2010

Title: Federal Prison Industries, Inc. (FPI) status

Name: Larry Wyborski

Phone: 202-493-4638

Policy OR Guidance: Guidance

Section/Text Location Affected: T3.8.4.A.1

Summary of Change: FPI is no longer a mandatory source so the reference to FPI as a mandatory source is being deleted.

Reason for Change: A previous CR, Clarification of UNICOR Status, revised procedures for FPI, but did not change the reference to FPI as a mandatory source in another section of Procurement Guidance. procurements.

Development, Review, and/or Concurrence: AGC

Target Audience: FAA Contracting Offices

Potential Links within FAST for the Change: none

Briefing Planned: No

ASAG Responsibilities: None

Potential Links within FAST for the Change: none

Links for New/Modified Forms (or) Documents (LINK 1) null

Links for New/Modified Forms (or) Documents (LINK 2) null

Links for New/Modified Forms (or) Documents (LINK 3) null

SECTIONS EDITED:

Procurement Guidance:

T3.8.4 Government Sources of Products/Services

Use of Government Sources

Section 1 : Mandatory Sources [\[Old Content\]](#)[\[New Content\]](#) [\[RedLine Content\]](#)

SECTIONS EDITED:

Section 1 : Mandatory Sources

Old Content: Procurement Guidance:

T3.8.4 Government Sources of Products/Services

Use of Government Sources

Section 1 : Mandatory Sources

a. General. The FAA will generally satisfy requirements for products and services from commercial sources, or when in FAA's best interest, from or through Government sources. In some cases, FAA must purchase from or through Government sources or programs: Federal Prison Industries, Randolph-Sheppard Act, and Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD) are mandatory sources for satisfying certain FAA purchases.

b. Except as otherwise provided by law or FAA policy, FAA will satisfy requirements for products and services from or through the sources listed below in descending order of priority:

(1) FAA inventory and excess inventory from other agencies;

(2) Federal Prison Industries, Inc. (FPI) (also known as UNICOR);

(3) Supply or service sources mandated by the Randolph-Sheppard Act and by the Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD); and

(4) Commercial sources, Federal Supply Schedules, or other sources.

c. The Strategic Sourcing for the Acquisition of Various Equipment and Supplies (SAVES) program is a mandatory source when applicable (see paragraph 6. below). Supplies procured through the SAVES program comply with JWOD requirements.

New Content: Procurement Guidance:

T3.8.4 Government Sources of Products/Services

Use of Government Sources

Section 1 : Mandatory Sources

a. General. The FAA will generally satisfy requirements for products and services from commercial sources, or when in FAA's best interest, from or through Government sources. In some cases, FAA must purchase from or through Government sources or programs: Randolph-

Sheppard Act, and Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD) are mandatory sources for satisfying certain FAA purchases.

b. Except as otherwise provided by law or FAA policy, FAA will satisfy requirements for products and services from or through the sources listed below in descending order of priority:

- (1) FAA inventory and excess inventory from other agencies;
- (2) Supply or service sources mandated by the Randolph-Sheppard Act and by the Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD); and
- (3) Commercial sources, Federal Supply Schedules, or other sources.

c. The Strategic Sourcing for the Acquisition of Various Equipment and Supplies (SAVES) program is a mandatory source when applicable (see paragraph 6. below). Supplies procured through the SAVES program comply with JWOD requirements.

Red Line Content: Procurement Guidance:

T3.8.4 Government Sources of Products/Services

Use of Government Sources

Section 1 : Mandatory Sources

a. General. The FAA will generally satisfy requirements for products and services from commercial sources, or when in FAA's best interest, from or through Government sources. In some cases, FAA must purchase from or through Government sources or programs: - ~~Federal Prison Industries,~~ Randolph-Sheppard Act, and Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD) are mandatory sources for satisfying certain FAA purchases.

b. Except as otherwise provided by law or FAA policy, FAA will satisfy requirements for products and services from or through the sources listed below in descending order of priority:

- (1) FAA inventory and excess inventory from other agencies;
- (2) ~~Federal Prison Industries, Inc. (FPI) (also known as UNICOR);~~ (3) Supply or service sources mandated by the Randolph-Sheppard Act and by the Javitts-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD); and
- (4~~3~~) Commercial sources, Federal Supply Schedules, or other sources.

c. The Strategic Sourcing for the Acquisition of Various Equipment and Supplies (SAVES) program is a mandatory source when applicable (see paragraph 6. below). Supplies procured through the SAVES program comply with JWOD requirements.